

Title: FLUX

Year: 2014

Artist: Moss and Lam

Medium: Polycarbonate paper, aircraft cables, hardware

Location: Kitchener Public Library main branch
85 Queen Street North
Kitchener, ON
N2H 2H1

Acquisition Method: Public Art (1%)

Inspired by the simplicity of a sheet of paper and its significance to the library, FLUX is about transformation and dissemination. The undulating shape expresses the dynamics of how a contemporary library functions within its local and virtual community. The fluid qualities of modern information access inspired this artwork, which appears to dematerialize, drift and float into space.